Iran shuts Hormuz again over Israeli strikes, sends team for Swiss talks

US military says forces remain present and vigilant to ensure compliance with the Iran deal

TEHRAN

IRAN said it was once again closing the vital Strait of Hormuz shipping lane on Saturday over Israel's attacks in Lebanon, calling them a violation of its deal with the United States to end the West Asia war.

Israeli troops battled Hezbollah fighters while its warplanes conducted deadly strikes in Lebanon's south on Saturday, hours after the United States announced a renewed ceasefire in the fighting there.

The ongoing hostilities had already strained the deal signed by US President Donald Trump and his Iranian counterpart Masoud Pezeshkian this week to halt the wider regional war on all fronts, including Lebanon — a key demand of Tehran's.

Citing a US "breach of contract" and "the Zionist regime's continuous and relentless violation of the ceasefire in southern Lebanon", Iran's central military command announced Saturday "that the Strait of Hormuz will be closed to vessel traffic".

Meanwhile, the US military's Central Command said after the announcement that its "forces remain present and vigilant to ensure all aspects of the agreement with Iran are adhered to".

Iran seeks pact guarantees

An Iranian delegation left for Switzerland on Saturday afternoon, state media reported, with foreign ministry spokesman Esmaeil Baqaei saying they would "demand implementation of the other party's commitments" under the deal as soon as possible.

"Otherwise, the entire understanding will be in trouble," he said, according to official news agency IRNA.

After postponing a planned trip the day before, US Vice President JD Vance told Fox News on Saturday that he too expected to travel to Switzerland for talks in "the next couple of days, but you know it's always a delicate coordination dance".

US negotiators Jared Kushner and Steve Witkoff were already in Switzerland handling "some of the technical elements" and had reported that "things are going well", Vance added, just moments before the Iranian announcement about the Hormuz strait.

Switzerland's foreign ministry confirmed unnamed foreign envoys there were "continuing their efforts to maintain the dialogue", but declined to offer further details. AFP

Technical-level US-Iran talks to begin today, says Pak

ISLAMABAD: Pakistan said technical-level US-Iran talks aimed at restoring peace in West Asia will begin in Switzerland on Sunday, with Pakistan and Qatar acting as mediators. The discussions follow this week's Islamabad memorandum, which opened a 60-day negotiation window and was signed by Pakistan as guarantor. US Vice President JD Vance said negotiators Steve Witkoff and Jared Kushner were already in Switzerland, while Iran's delegation was also headed there.

Lebanon says war toll tops 4,000

BEIRUT: Lebanon's health ministry said Saturday that Israeli attacks since March 2 when the latest Israel-Hezbollah war began had reached 4,057 dead, including 135 health and emergency workers, and 12,121 people wounded. The ministry also raised the toll in Israeli attacks on Friday from 47 to "a final toll of 83 martyrs and 141 wounded", most of them in south Lebanon.

Refurbished Air Force One unveiled by Trump

WASHINGTON: Donald Trump unveiled a refurbished Boeing 747-8i, previously owned by Qatar, that will serve as a bridge Air Force One until Boeing delivers replacement aircraft in 2028. The jet, featuring a new red, white and blue livery, will begin commissioning flights before entering service next month. Trump said it would make a July 4 flyover and be used for next month's NATO summit.

Zelenskyy returns Poland's top honour over WWII row

WARSAW

UKRAINIAN leader Volodymyr Zelenskyy has returned Poland's highest state honor, after the Polish president stripped him of the award as a politically charged dispute over World War II history resurfaced.

Ukrainians believed the order "was meant for the Ukrainian People and our army," Zelenskyy wrote in a social media post explaining the gesture. "Today, I sent the Order back to the President of Poland. I believe the future will confirm the respect Ukrainians deserve."

The message published on X is accompanied by photos of the Polish order and a postal receipt that it was about to be mailed to the Polish presidential office.

President Karol Nawrocki decided to strip Zelenskyy of the Order of the White Eagle over the Ukrainian leader's decision to name a military unit after a Ukrainian paramilitary organization accused of massacring Poles during WWII.

Former Polish President Andrzej Duda bestowed the award on Zelenskyy in 2023 for services to security, resilience and the defense of human rights.

Zelenskyy issued a decree on May 26 naming a unit of Ukraine's Special Operations Forces after the Ukrainian Insurgent Army, or UPA, which operated during the 1940s and 1950s and has been accused in Poland of mass killings.

"For the majority of Polish society, the Ukrainian Insurgent Army remains above all a formation responsible for cruel crimes against the citizens of the Polish Republic during World War II," Nawrocki said in a 13-minute address on social media. AFP
